

OUR DEEPEST FEAR

is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness, that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented and fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small doesn't serve the world. There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We were born to make manifest the glory of God within us. It is not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And, as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.

Answer These 5 Defining Questions

Your Coach Can Help Clarify and Refine if Needed

- 1) What do you Really, Really, Really, Really want?
The 4 Reallys stand for: What you desire, What you are willing to ask for, What you truly intend to create in your life and What you are passionate about.
- 2) Why do you want it?
- 3) What is holding you back (or has held you back) from getting there?
- 4) What will your life be like once you get there?
- 5) What personal qualities would someone need to possess to effortlessly create the outcomes you desire?
To identify your growth opportunities, rate yourself from 1-10 on these qualities.
